ORTLIEB DRY BAG SADDLEBAGS

Sometimes the best ideas are the simplest. Like this pair completely waterproof throw-over soft saddlebags: they are made of the same PVC materials and use the same sealing system found on heavy-duty dry bags. The easy loading top entry design rolls over and clips at both ends for a completely waterproof seal. Each bag's lower leading end is cut away for generous passenger leg clearance. The bikeside has a full width Thermo-molded pad to protect paint and bodywork. All webbing and hardware is top grade. Inside are several carefully designed polypropylene stiffener panels as well as a handy organizer pocket, and at the rear of each bag is a Scotchlite™ reflective area.

Dry Bag Saddlebags are short enough to fit ahead of the rear turn signals on all motorcycles and are ideal for use on dual sport or sport machines. You won't find frivolous details here, just intelligent and functional bags that won't stick out too far yet will easily hold enough for a weekend camping trip. Totally waterproof. Easy to install and quick to put on or remove. Black or yellow. 15"×13"×8" each with 3173 cu. in. combined volume.

Review by Martin — "I've had these bags for about a month now and am very happy with them. I've taken several multi-day long distance trips, through some pretty harsh weather and the bags perform flawlessly. They fit directly on to my '08 KLR seat perfectly. In some reviews I read, there seemed to be concerns about "all the straps". There are just three straps that mount the bags to the bike and they are very simple/sensible. The closure system is identical to what you would find on a river dry bag. A note to post '08 KLR owners who wonder if these bags need a supplemental mounting rack: they don't. The existing muffler heat shield adequately protects the bag on that side from heat. I rode all day in 113 degree Mojave heat and the bag was fine - there was slight distortion on the mounting panel but nothing that concerned me. The contents of the bag (my tent) felt warm when I got it out after a day of riding, but no where near hot enough to cause damage. I can think of no reason that I wouldn't make this purchase again."

ORTLIEB LOW PROFILE DRY BAG SADDLEBAGS

A rugged pair of roll-top waterproof saddlebags, perfect for bikes with high-riding exhaust systems. The unique low profile design sits higher than standard saddlebags, yet has 2100 cubic inches of total space for whatever you need to carry. Made of extremely strong and abrasion resistant reinforced PVC with a thermo-molded rear pad to protect paint finish. Inner organizer pocket allows quick, convenient access. Black. 9"×19.5"×6" each. 2100 cu. in. combined volume.

#9287 $240.00

Review by Beth — "I looked long and hard for saddlebags for my 2004 Black Bonneville. I wanted something 100% waterproof that would work with (or at least not take away from) the look of my bike. Although I like the look of the traditional leather bags you sometimes see on Triumphs, I was worried about them not performing well in rain. I also didn't want anything that looked like suitcases attached to the bike. I am really happy with these bags. They feel secure on the bike without additional supports or panier frames and hold a fair amount of stuff. The low profile keeps them well above the exhaust pipes and they sit neatly against the seat. I like how utilitarian they are: form following function."

ORTLIEB QRL (QUICK RELEASE LATCH) DRY BAG SADDLEBAGS

Completely waterproof soft saddlebag with unique quick release mounting hooks. A built-in padded carrying handle and internal organizer pocket make this a convenient motorcycle briefcase, or attach the removable padded shoulder strap for an ideal sized travel bag or courier bag. Internal stiffener panels and a roll-top closure provide easy access to contents, while side-release buckles keep contents secure.

Scotchlite™ reflective areas on both ends allow bags to be attached to either side of the motorcycle. Requires a 3/16" to 5/8" round-tubular mounting system available separately from specialist suppliers. Racks are available for most motorcycles. Contact happy-trail.com or moto-sportpanniers.com for specific applications. Order one bag for each side. Black. (Not Shown). 12"×17"×6"/1465 cu. in. each. (Sold Individually).

Review by Troy — "Wow - what fantastic saddlebags. I received them today and spent some time mounting them. The overall quality is much better than I expected. Adjustability is excellent. They fit my rear tail guards on my '02 KLR650. (I don't know what brand the rear guards are - I bought the bike second hand). They are the perfect size for me and simple to remove/install. I am looking forward to giving them some commuting and trail use and then report back, but so far I'm very pleased and impressed with them."

ORTLIEB THIN DRY BAG SADDLEBAGS

Narrower waterproof saddlebags are perfect for travelin' lighter and faster. Thin-Case Dry Bag Saddlebags only stick out 4" on each side, but will hold more than enough for most trips. Each side bag is a modified and reinforced Waterproof Brief Bag (#1968) so it'll retain its shape and protect your contents. The 'throw over' mounting system is secure, fast, and versatile. The roll-over seal and top loading opening is easy to use and absolutely waterproof. A lightweight (but strong) system. 11.8"×15.7"×4" each. 1480 cu. in. total.

Review by KimmerO — "I bought these bags for my 1994 Kawasaki Vulcan 500. Looking for bags and a bracket for that bike? Well, you've found them!! Though a little undersized for a lot of gear, these bags fit great on my older bike. I was able to install the top straps under the seat and the built in 'brackets' keep the bags out of the back wheel fine. They fit under my tail lights...just. The tight fit makes rolling the waterproof seal a little inconvenient but having bags now certainly outweighs any slight awkwardness. Easy to install, and yep, watertight. Great product."

WOLFMAN ENDURO TANK BAG

A small, narrow tank bag shaped to fit perfectly on virtually all dual sport and enduro type bikes. The innovative design uses a three point mounting system for stability and does not interfere with the gas cap or vent hose. Laminated foam sides hold the bag's shape and a Toughtek bottom prevents slipping. There's also an inside and an outside mesh pocket, a removable map pocket and a key clip. Coated cordura nylon. 3.5"-7.5"×9"×5.5" Black.

#9023 $94.00

Raincover #9360 $19.00

Review by clydefrancis — "I'm very happy with this bag. I'm currently riding a '88 Kawasaki KLR650 and it's a perfect fit for that tank. No unclipping necessary for refueling — which is fantastic. It was very durable, and the oversized zipper pulls are really quite easy to use even with a double gloved hand (ballistic+rain). I really have only one gripe with this bag — it get's very wet. Soaked in hard rain...along with all of it's contents. I knew going into my purchase that this was not a 'waterproof' item, but I assumed the cordura would hold up a bit better in the wet. Guess I should have opted for the raincover!

This bag is very, very easy to get on and off the bike along with all of it's attachment straps, which also are very easy to install and uninstall when needed. I would recommend this bag to others with an enduro tank...it looks quite small but in actuality it holds quite a bit. The map pocket is a little small and does require a bit of crafty folding, but again it's really a solid bag. On to purchase the rain cover!"

WOLFMAN RAINIER TANK BAG

Although aimed at the Dual Sport 600's, this tank bag is right at home on just about any Dual Sport bike. With its unique sloping bottom design, you can sit on your bike and glance down to a level map pocket—for once. The Rainier will hold a lot of stuff in an orderly, secure way thanks to its 4-point mounting and foam padding. Three outside pockets, including two removable side pockets, a reversible map pocket, an expandable gusset and a finish-friendly Toughtek bottom round out the features of this well-thought-out and quality constructed tank bag. Explorer Lite is 9"-12"×14"×11", Rainier is 9"-13"×15"×11". Both bags are black, 1000 Denier urethane coated Cordura®.

Review by Michael — "The bag installed quickly and easily to the frame beneath the front of the seat and behind the steering head. It fits the slope of the tank well, providing a level map surface when not expanded. Space is a little tight at the front of the tank, but it works. The bag does not interfere with your legs when standing. Plenty of pockets, very functional."

Review by Codger — "There is a tendency to think that larger is better in touring tank bags. This tank bag is smaller than the BMW labelled bag for the 1200 GSA. However, if you will ever be using your bike in terrain than might have you standing on the foot pegs, you will be pleased with this bag. The separate side pouches are very handy for glasses, tire pressure gauges and other oft used items. I am a very satisfied customer."

WOLFMAN TIMBERWOLF TANK BAG

Designed to fit on the flatter tanks of most sport and sport touring bikes, this nicely sewn tank bag features two removable side pockets, a removable map case, a 3 point strap mount system, two mesh organizer pockets, foam and plastic internal stiffeners, reflective accents and a carrying handle. Its Tough-Tek rubberized bottom won't scratch or slip. Expandable base gusset zipper adds 3" of additional capacity. 7.5"×13"×12"(with pockets) ×9"(without).

Review by Mark — "I bought this bag after looking for a long time for a replacement for my BMW bag on my 1150RT. I have been pleased with the fitment, the quality, and the utility of the bag. Something you don't read anywhere about it is that the interior is silver so you can see everything. The zippers work well and everything is in the correct place. The extra side pockets are great for keeping everything organized. I wish it was waterproof and it would be perfect."

WOLFMAN BLACKHAWK TANK BAG

The Blackhawk Tank Bag fits in between the compact Enduro Tank Bag and Rainier model. Its 8 liter capacity and trim lines give it great clearance for off-road riding. The Curved base contours snugly to most sloped tanks. The foam structure gives the Blackhawk "Soft-Rigidity", allowing the bag to flex. Constructed from rugged 1680 Denier Ballistic fabric with a 3/8" foam laminate body and non-skid, non-scratch bottom. The top map pocket is removable and has been enhanced to better serve riders who use electronics, with integrated loop to attach via adhesive hook to keep your tech in place. Roomy interior compartment and a stealthy outside pocket for quick access items. Mounts to the tank with a secure 4-point quick release harness. Length: Top 9" Bottom: 11¼" Height: Front 8" Rear: 3 1/2" Width: 7". Black.

Review by David — "OK, I am prejudiced. I've owned several Wolfman products and they have all been great.

"This tankbag did not change that. It is a perfect companion for my Ver-sys, small enough to stay out of the way, big enough to hold the essentials, and can expand when needed.

"Easy on and off, great quality, I'll enjoy it for years."

Review by joe — "The Wolfman Express Tank Bag is not too big, and it's not too small, it's just the right size. A well made product that'll last a long time. Easy to attach and remove. I love it and you will to!"

Review by Robert - "My Bike: 2009, FJR1300. Greats: installation simple; easily removed during lunch breaks & fuel stops; map case really works well; bag perfect size for long or short trips; both bag and map case totally waterproof during random showers so no need to stop and put on a rain cover--there isn't one; excellent capacity; access to items pretty easy once you understand how to open the weatherproof T-zip system.

"NOTE: if you are looking for a quick access bag while driving, this is not your bag...the weather-proof T-zip system takes two hands to open and close.

Everything you'll want to carry (clothing, tent, food and camping gear), fits neatly within these detailed and cavernous seat bags. Standard #903 $145.00
Competition #902 $145.00

Review by Brian — "In the Chinook trading language here in the Pacific Northwest, skookum means strong and good.

That fits the AeroStitch tank panniers. Their simplicity makes them very practical in use and appearance. What a breath of fresh air to have a product that is totally utilitarian without the clutter of goofy graphics and busy, unnecessary pockets, straps, etc.

What you get with the standard panniers are huge cargo areas each side that keep touring weight low and forward. Water, fuel, tools, parts, camp stove, etc. Not only does it keep touring handling to a naked bike feel, but it takes lots of weight stress off the rear sub-frame of my venerable BMW R60/6. In position, these bags hold firmly, resting against the tank sides on large sheets of dense, black foam rubber and secured at the bottom by adjustable, fabric bungi cords.

I had some question as to whether the panniers would hang down to the airhead cylinders and whether they would give enough room for my knees, for a six-footer. The over-the-tank two straps are extra long, but in my case I had to take up most of the slack via the Velcro adjustments and the panniers are well above the cylinders and forward of my knees. I could cut off the excess strap ends, and they are cross-sewed every inch for that purpose, but I wish to retain future options for use on other machines, or for the use by friends.

The construction and material quality is outstanding. These panniers are evidence of what a small, dedicated group of people can accomplish when allowed to do what is right. These are well engineered and thought out.

You could find cheaper tank panniers, but for the cost of lunch you can have what to me seems to be the best. These bags are the black standard size, better than the "competition" size for touring. If you were "uncool before uncool was cool" then these bags are you. They give my R60/6 a nerdy, mule look. El Rodento is now ready for the deserts of Southeast Oregon, if only the man will give me some time off!"

TANK PANNIER NOTES

From the start we were always afraid to tell our customers these were sized specifically for carrying two one gallon cans of gasoline, because we thought recommending this would be dangerous, so they were never presented this way in any Aerostich catalog. We never ended up using them for that ourselves. They were introduced in 1988, because back then nobody else made anything like them, and we did think someday we occasionally might want to be able to carry some extra gas.

Sales were low at first but later they became more popular and others began making similar ones. One company even made an exact 'reverse engineered' copy after taking the pattern from one of ours. What made this especially funny was that company not only stole the design stitch-for-stitch, but also lifted the product description word-for-word from our catalog directly to theirs.

Today there are lots of different tank pannier choices, but these remain popular. Their simplicity, many functional details, high quality and general versatility are why. People have hauled just about everything in them, all over the world. They fit a lot of different bikes well, and have become a minor classic.

We are always thrilled when riders visit us. Here's Billy Gibson, who, with his partner Trisha Cotton, stopped by last summer (August, 2014) and shared a few stories from the road and told us how well his Darien Jacket and Pants have performed. They departed from their homeland of Australia in 2003, and after 8 years, 100 countries and over 175,000 miles have no plans to stop riding, as they put it 'wherever'. No sponsors. No blog. No begging button. Just ride!

With every day spent riding, and all worldly possessions carried on their bikes, Aerostich Tank Panniers add much needed storage for easy access to daily necessities (water, snacks, camera...). Good riding Billy & Trisha! Ride Everywhere.

Review Theodor J. — "I purchased the large bag several years ago and used it on several trips covering thousands of miles - mostly in nice weather through the Southwest of the USA. However, knowing that it is well made, water tight and that it has the useful D-rings which make it easy to attach make it my only choice when going on the road. Makes everything else superfluous. Because I feel that I can still reduce what I take, I just ordered the medium size and I am sure I will not be disappointed. Highly recommended, particularly considering its cost."

PACKING & PROTECTING MADE SIMPLE

Ortlieb roll-top dry bags were the first of their kind. Introduced over twenty years ago, they have been much-copied but continue to set the standard for waterproofness, function and reliability.

For quick protection from impact and vibration, put your cameras, radios, tablets, flux capacitors and all delicate things into Aerostich fleece bags and then throw them all into a dry bag duffel. Add a pair of shorts or long pants, a sweatshirt or fleece jacket (depending on the weather at the moment), and your bathroom kit. Strap the dry bag to your rack or saddle and take off.

Aerostich fleece bags make packing and protecting your delicate electronic or optical things simple: Just bag the stuff and toss it into your duffel. This is much easier than having to carefully pack each fragile item between soft things, and it also makes on the road access to your stuff faster and less frustrating.

WHY WE MAKE PADDED SLEEVES AND CASES

Because the ones in stores suck. Especially for everyday motorcycle and scooter riding. Aerostich padded cases and sleeves are not overly-complicated, or overly anything. They are simple, practical designs, made at our Duluth shop, using a very lightweight yet flexible (but still semi-stiff) open-cell foam (not floppy neoprene) sandwiched and laminated between two durable fabrics. And no redundant zippers or pockets either.

Inside is thin soft polyester fleece laminate. Outside is a lightweight abrasion-resistant slightly slippery twill laminate. And around the edge is a strong Nylon binding tape.

Slide your tablet or notebook in. It stays there by slight friction against the fit and fleece. Comes out faster and easier, too. If a cover flap is involved it secures with only a few simple pieces of hook & loop. Your device is protected and ready to pack along without extra weight or bulk.

Lastly, these cases are really durable. I'm still using a fifteen year old prototype every day. And it's still showing only minimal wear."

AFTER 15 YEARS OF DAILY USE

AEROSTICH PADDED TABLET SLEEVES

The practical minimalists solution: Traveling iPads slide in snugly, protected from bumps, knocks, dust and scratches. It's the everyday, in-and-out, fastest, lightest, easiest protection system available. And is made by us, right here, from custom-engineered materials (developed for our range of laptop cases). This three layer laminate has tough nylon twill outside, a soft brushed fleece inside and a .20 inch layer of impact material sandwiched between. It looks great and wears well. Soft, but not floppy—empty it holds its shape. And it's lightweight. iPads travel safe and secure inside any backpack, duffel or courier bag. Elegant, functional simplicity. Pure protection.

We make these ourselves because we could not find a simple padded, lightweight sleeve made in China. Funny, huh?

THE FIRST MODERN MESSENGER BAGS

The first Aerostich messenger bag was built in 1985, years before today's more well-known messenger bag makers (Timbuk2, Chrome, others) existed. Outdoor fashion companies such as Patagonia and North Face introduced their messenger bags many years later, too.

In 1985 only two of these bags were being produced in small numbers for professional messengers. We patterned the first Aerostich Courier bag closely after one of those 'proven-by-messengers' industrial designs.

These originals were made of cotton canvas, and had no hook-and-loop (Velcro) lids, no reflective material anywhere, no strap-length cam adjusters and no side-release flap buckles for oversize loads. Aerostich bags introduced these modern features and were first with advanced materials like Cordura nylon, 3M Reflectives, Delrin high strength buckles and strap adjusters.

Today's Aerostich Bags remain more strongly made than these similar looking bags. Most 25 year old ones remain in daily use today.

Many construction details of Aerostich Bags are different. One example is how the top flap is constructed. Cheaper bags connect the inner flap's fabric to the outer fabric with an inexpensive 'binding' stitched around the outside edges. That's easy, but not especially durable. An Aerostich flap is first sewn inside-out, then turned right side-out and edge-stitched the same way a dress shirt collar is made. This looks 'right' and lasts much longer.

Another example is the oversize shoulder pad. It spreads your load better, and is carefully constructed of several materials. If you carry a messenger bag everyday, or are sometimes heavily-loaded, you'll want this pad.

There really is a difference.

Review by Terry — "Excellent purchase. Packs to nothing. Weighs nothing. Unpacks to a well designed grocery bag with handles or a backpack with adjustable shoulder straps. Solves the problem of how to carry a backpack while touring. And a surprisingly comfortable backpack at that. Even when loaded with gear. Get one!"

THE EVERY RIDE PACK

A rider's everyday back pack should be simple, durable, comfortable, clean and functional. This German-designed day pack is all that and more. The three-size range means a better, more comfortable fit. And each size's basic fit is further custom adjustable.

These have a ton of useful features: Integral raincover, smart arrangement of the internal and secondary pockets, easily adjustable comfort frame, expandable size for extra room, clean overall exterior design, quality sewing — and more. The side-zippered, expandable size is especially neat. Like a two-height tank bag for when you temporarily need more room. Everything a great riders pack should be, and a terrific value.

VAUDE WIZARD 18/24/30L BACKPACKS

Fitting everything you want to carry in a backpack is important, but getting the proper fit for your body size makes a huge difference for all-day comfort. These are made in three sizes so you can wear the one that fits you best. It will become a favorite because it fits you better.

All three bags provide a zip-to-add 4-Liter capacity expansion and side compression straps. They are perfect for short urban rides as much as overnight long-distance trips. Well ventilated Aeroflex suspension system works with the adjustable shoulder and sternum straps to optimize for any back length and wear more comfortably. Integrated opening accommodates a hydration system too. Front zip pocket and outer mesh side-pockets allow quick access to often used items. Included is a built-in raincover. Review by CeeBee — "Worked great for me, certainly a huge improvement over having to constantly dig the trail map out of my fanny pack. Large map area was really nice too, minimized the need to take map out to refold and expose a new area. Was initially concerned about whether the plastic buckles zip tied to the handlebar would be up to the task but they survived 4 days of serious off-roading without a problem. I didn't encounter any serious rain but I could see where it would be nice to have a bit better weather seal on the map compartment. For my uses (off-road) it would be a bit better without the extra pockets since all I really need is the big map window."

Review by Don Muther — "...The other item that I bought last minute for this ride was the banana pack. I have an old one (similar) made here in Europe from around the 1980s that had pretty much seen better days. This was the closest thing I could find to it and as it turns out was much nicer. I wore this every day to carry all my important stuff. Wallet, glasses, passport, butt-wipes, camera, cellphone, and respro bandit. Being able to expand it was a huge plus when we stopped and ended up purchasing trinkets: I don't have a picture without it over my shoulder. Just a really handy piece."
