ORTLIEB WATERPROOF SADDLEBAGS

Sometimes the best ideas are the simplest. Like this pair completely waterproof throw-over soft saddlebags: they are made of the same PVC materials and use the same sealing system found on heavy-duty dry bags. The easy loading top entry design rolls over and clips at both ends for a completely waterproof seal. Each bag's lower leading end is cut away for generous passenger leg clearance. The bikeside has a full width Thermo-molded pad to protect paint and bodywork. All webbing and hardware is top grade. Inside are several carefully designed polypropylene stiffener panels as well as a handy organizer pocket, and at the rear of each bag is a Scotchlite™ reflective area.

Dry Bag Saddlebags are short enough to fit ahead of the rear turn signals on all motorcycles and are ideal for use on dual sport or sport machines. You won't find frivolous details here, just intelligent and functional bags that won't stick out too far yet will easily hold enough for a weekend camping trip. Totally waterproof. Easy to install and quick to put on or remove. Black or yellow. 15"×13"×8" each with 3173 cu. in. combined volume.

"I've had these bags for about a month now and am very happy with them. I've taken several multi-day long distance trips, through some pretty harsh weather and the bags perform flawlessly. They fit directly on to my '08 KLR seat perfectly. In some reviews I read, there seemed to be concerns about "all the straps". There are just three straps that mount the bags to the bike and they are very simple/sensible. The closure system is identical to what you would find on a river dry bag. A note to post '08 KLR owners who wonder if these bags need a supplemental mounting rack: they don't. The existing muffler heat shield adequately protects the bag on that side from heat. I rode all day in 113 degree Mojave heat and the bag was fine - there was slight distortion on the mounting panel but nothing that concerned me. The contents of the bag (my tent) felt warm when I got it out after a day of riding, but no where near hot enough to cause damage. I can think of no reason that I wouldn't make this purchase again." —Review by Martin

ORTLIEB LOW PROFILE WATERPROOF SADDLEBAGS

A rugged pair of roll-top waterproof saddlebags, perfect for bikes with high-riding exhaust systems. The unique low profile design sits higher than standard saddlebags, yet has 2100 cubic inches of total space for whatever you need to carry. Made of extremely strong and abrasion resistant reinforced PVC with a thermo-molded rear pad to protect paint finish. Inner organizer pocket allows quick, convenient access. Black. 9"×19.5"×6" each. 2100 cu. in. combined volume.

"I looked long and hard for saddlebags for my 2004 Black Bonneville. I wanted something 100% waterproof that would work with (or at least not take away from) the look of my bike. Although I like the look of the traditional leather bags you sometimes see on Triumphs, I was worried about them not performing well in rain. I also didn't want anything that looked like suitcases attached to the bike. I am really happy with these bags. They feel secure on the bike without additional supports or panier frames and hold a fair amount of stuff. The low profile keeps them well above the exhaust pipes and they sit neatly against the seat. I like how utilitarian they are: form following function." —Review by Beth

ORTLIEB QRL (QUICK RELEASE LATCH) WATERPROOF SADDLEBAGS

Completely waterproof soft saddlebag with unique quick release mounting hooks. A built-in padded carrying handle and internal organizer pocket make this a convenient motorcycle briefcase, or attach the removable padded shoulder strap for an ideal sized travel bag or courier bag. Internal stiffener panels and a roll-top closure provide easy access to contents, while side-release buckles keep contents secure.

Scotchlite™ reflective areas on both ends allow bags to be attached to either side of the motorcycle. Requires a 3/16" to 5/8" round-tubular mounting system available separately from specialist suppliers. Racks are available for most motorcycles. Contact happy-trail.com or moto-sportpanniers.com for specific applications.

Order one bag for each side. Black. (Not Shown). 12"×17"×6"/1465 cu. in. each. (Sold Individually).

"Wow - what fantastic saddlebags. I received them today and spent some time mounting them. The overall quality is much better than I expected. Adjustability is excellent. They fit my rear tail guards on my '02 KLR650. (I don't know what brand the rear guards are - I bought the bike second hand). They are the perfect size for me and simple to remove/install. I am looking forward to giving them some commuting and trail use and then report back, but so far I'm very pleased and impressed with them." —Review by Troy

ORTLIEB THIN WATERPROOF SADDLEBAGS

Narrower waterproof saddlebags are perfect for travelin' lighter and faster. Thin-Case Dry Bag Saddlebags only stick out 4" on each side, but will hold more than enough for most trips. Each side bag is a modified and reinforced Waterproof Brief Bag (#1968) so it'll retain its shape and protect your contents. The 'throw over' mounting system is secure, fast, and versatile. The roll-over seal and top loading opening is easy to use and absolutely waterproof. A lightweight (but strong) system. 11.8"×15.7"×4" each. 1480 cu. in. total.

"I bought these bags for my 1994 Kawasaki Vulcan 500. Looking for bags and a bracket for that bike? Well, you've found them!! Though a little undersized for a lot of gear, these bags fit great on my older bike. I was able to install the top straps under the seat and the built in 'brackets' keep the bags out of the back wheel fine. They fit under my tail lights...just. The tight fit makes rolling the waterproof seal a little inconvenient but having bags now certainly outweighs any slight awkwardness. Easy to install, and yep, watertight. Great product." —Review by KimmerO

WOLFMAN ENDURO TANK BAG

A small, narrow tank bag shaped to fit perfectly on virtually all dual sport and enduro type bikes. The innovative design uses a three point mounting system for stability and does not interfere with the gas cap or vent hose. Laminated foam sides hold the bag's shape and a Toughtek bottom prevents slipping. There's also an inside and an outside mesh pocket, a removable map pocket and a key clip. Coated cordura nylon. 3.5"-7.5"×9"×5.5" Black.

#9023 $94.00

Raincover #9360 $19.00

"I'm very happy with this bag. I'm currently riding a '88 Kawasaki KLR650 and it's a perfect fit for that tank. No unclipping necessary for refueling — which is fantastic. It was very durable, and the oversized zipper pulls are really quite easy to use even with a double gloved hand (ballistic+rain). I really have only one gripe with this bag — it get's very wet. Soaked in hard rain...along with all of it's contents. I knew going into my purchase that this was not a 'waterproof' item, but I assumed the cordura would hold up a bit better in the wet. Guess I should have opted for the raincover!"

This bag is very, very easy to get on and off the bike along with all of it's attachment straps, which also are very easy to install and uninstall when needed. I would recommend this bag to others with an enduro tank...it looks quite small but in actuality it holds quite a bit. The map pocket is a little small and does require a bit of crafty folding, but again it's really a solid bag. On to purchase the rain cover!" —Review by clydefrancis

WOLFMAN RAINIER TANK BAG

"The bag installed quickly and easily to the frame beneath the front of the seat and behind the steering head. It fits the slope of the tank well, providing a level map surface when not expanded. Space is a little tight at the front of the tank, but it works. The bag does not interfere with your legs when standing. Plenty of pockets, very functional." —Review by Michael

"There is a tendency to think that larger is better in touring tank bags. This tank bag is smaller than the BMW labelled bag for the 1200 GSA. However, if you will ever be using your bike in terrain than might have you standing on the foot pegs, you will be pleased with this bag. The separate side pouches are very handy for glasses, tire pressure gauges and other oft used items. I am a very satisfied customer." —Review by Codger

MOTOFIZZ MODULAR TANK BAG SYSTEM

Talk about functionality.... Not only can this bag be used as an expanding tank bag – it's also designed to function as a tailpack. Wait, there's more... Each section of the bag can be fully unzipped and used alone or reattached to different sections, in effect creating six bags in one. Only need a magnetic map bag? Just a tailpack with compression straps, no magnets? Just your map bag? Only a .25" tall magnetic mesh zipped pocket? It's up to you. Zip off the top, middle and bottom and zip them in whatever configuration you choose. It's a modular podular thing and it's way cool.

Top map bag section is padded and features a zipped, full-access 9.25"×12" window for oversize maps. Middle tailpack section has two zippered layers. The first features outer compression straps and inner oversize (9.25"×12.5") clear inner pockets with bookmarks. The second layer features a large zipped mesh pocket and a padded main compartment with 425 cubic inches of space that expands to over 700 cavernous cubic inches. The bottom section has four fold-away extra-magnetic feet and an oversize zipped mesh pocket.

More? Two removable 3"×7"×1" side pockets stow sunglasses or whatever smaller items to make a total overall volume of about 900 cubic inches. Heavy duty nylon and fabric-reinforced vinyl construction. Shoulder strap, tailpack straps, and transparent-front rain cover included. Nice. 6"-9"×13.5"×10.5".

"I have now had this tank bag on my '98 VFR for over a year. As a permanent fixture on the bike, I have grown to appreciate the multiple 'layers' of this bag. The map window is large and easy to access. Coupled with a pair of Air Pockets, maps and other documents are kept safe in the middle section and the main compartment has sufficient room for a tool roll, snacks, a camera, etc. with a zipped mesh top for extra organization." —Review by Mike Schwab

AEROSTITCH TANK PANNIERS

These tough, semi-rigid containers keep your load low and secure. Extremely handy for day-to-day use with or without a tank bag, they fit a variety of unfaired motorcycles. Detailed for a sleek look and functional design, and a great value for the price. Constructed of tough, water resistant urethane coated 1000 Denier Cordura nylon with an adjustable mounting system: two padded, two-inch wide, hook & loop closed webbing straps plus two adjustable bungee shock cords. Hook & loop attached neoprene tank pads protect your paint and eliminate slippage. Removable plastic inserts shape and define both of the bags. The panniers also feature two pockets along the rear panels for small items like pencils and a tire gage, several 1" web straps for attaching additional items, and 3M Scotchlite reflective material on the front and outside panels. Specify Black or Hi-Viz. Standard (12"×9"×5", 8.8 Liter, each) or Competition (12"×7.5"×4.5", 6.6 Liter, each). USA.

Standard #903 $145.00
Competition #902 $145.00

"In the Chinook trading language here in the Pacific Northwest, skookum means strong and good. That fits the AeroStitch tank panniers. Their simplicity makes them very practical in use and appearance. What a breath of fresh air to have a product that is totally utilitarian without the clutter of goofy graphics and busy, unnecessary pockets, straps, etc.

What you get with the standard panniers are huge cargo areas each side that keep touring weight low and forward. Water, fuel, tools, parts, camp stove, etc. Not only does it keep touring handling to a naked bike feel, but it takes lots of weight stress off the rear sub-frame of my venerable BMW R60/6. In position, these bags hold firmly, resting against the tank sides on large sheets of dense, black foam rubber and secured at the bottom by adjustable, fabric bungi cords.

I had some question as to whether the panniers would hang down to the airhead cylinders and whether they would give enough room for my knees, for a six-footer. The over-the-tank two straps are extra long, but in my case I had to take up most of the slack via the Velcro adjustments and the panniers are well above the cylinders and forward of my knees. I could cut off the excess strap ends, and they are cross-sewed every inch for that purpose, but I wish to retain future options for use on other machines, or for the use by friends.

The construction and material quality is outstanding. These panniers are evidence of what a small, dedicated group of people can accomplish when allowed to do what is right. These are well engineered and thought out.

You could find cheaper tank panniers, but for the cost of lunch you can have what to me seems to be the best. These bags are the black standard size, better than the "competition" size for touring. If you were "uncool before uncool was cool" then these bags are you. They give my R60/6 a nerdy, mule look. El Rodento is now ready for the deserts of Southeast Oregon, if only the man will give me some time off!" — Review by Brian

THE TANK PANNIER SECRETS

From the start we were always afraid to tell our customers these were sized specifically for carrying two one gallon cans of gasoline, because we thought recommending this would be dangerous, so they were never presented this way in any Aerostich catalog. We never ended up using them for that ourselves. They were introduced in 1988, because back then nobody else made anything like them, and we did think someday we occasionally might want to be able to carry some extra gas.

Sales were low at first but later they became more popular and others began making similar ones. One company even made an exact 'reverse engineered' copy after taking the pattern from one of ours. What made this especially funny was that company not only stole the design stitch-for-stitch, but also lifted the product description word-for-word from our catalog directly to theirs.

Today there are lots of different tank pannier choices, but these remain popular. Their simplicity, many functional details, high quality and general versatility are why. People have hauled just about everything in them, all over the world. They fit a lot of different bikes well, and have become a minor classic.

We are always thrilled when riders visit us. Here's Billy Gibson, who, with his partner Trisha Cotton, stopped by last summer (August, 2014) and shared a few stories from the road and told us how well his Darien Jacket and Pants have performed. They departed from their homeland of Australia in 2003, and after 8 years, 100 countries and over 175,000 miles have no plans to stop riding, as they put it 'wherever'. No sponsors. No blog. No begging button. Just ride!

With every day spent riding, and all worldly possessions carried on their bikes, Aerostich Tank Panniers add much needed storage for easy access to daily necessities (water, snacks, camera...). Good riding Billy & Trisha! Ride Everywhere.

"I purchased the large bag several years ago and used it on several trips covering thousands of miles - mostly in nice weather through the Southwest of the USA. However, knowing that it is well made, water tight and that it has the useful D-rings which make it easy to attach make it my only choice when going on the road. Makes everything else superfluous. Because I feel that I can still reduce what I take, I just ordered the medium size and I am sure I will not be disappointed. ORTLIEB WATERPROOF BACKPACK

A very enhanced dry bag duffel. The usual tough and abrasion resistant ultrasonically welded PVC plus a full length TIZIP waterproof zipper protects your clothes, electronics, camping gear, paperwork, etc. Padded handles are quickly converted into comfortable and adjustable backpack shoulder straps for off-bike trekking too.

Like a big bottomless cave, this bag opens to swallow whatever you store and internal straps compress the volume to maximize space and keep contents securely in place. Two internal pockets and one outer mesh pocket (which is not waterproof) make quick access to often used items a breeze. Zipper loop can be locked with padlock (not included) to keep contents secure. PACKING & PROTECTING MADE SIMPLE

Ortlieb roll-top waterproof bags were the first of their kind. Introduced over twenty-five years ago, they have been much-copied but continue to set the standard for dryness, function and reliability.

For quick protection from impact and vibration, put your cameras, radios, tablets, flux capacitors and all delicate things into Aerostich fleece bags and then throw them all into a dry bag duffel. Add a pair of shorts or long pants, a sweatshirt or fleece jacket (depending on the weather at the moment), and your bathroom kit. Strap the dry bag to your rack or saddle and take off.

Aerostich fleece bags make packing and protecting your delicate electronic or optical things simple: Just bag the stuff and toss it into your duffel. This is much easier than having to carefully pack each fragile item between soft things, and it also makes on the road access to your stuff faster and less frustrating.

SNIDER'S PAINTGUARD

If you like having shiny paint but ride hard, try this. The optically clear 7.5 mil thick polished vinyl works as a removable skin to protect your bike's painted finish. Goes on easily and cuts-to-fit wherever needed (under tank bags, etc...). Reusable over and over. Applies with only water and a squeegee. Flexible and durable wear and scratch protection. Includes instructions. Three 11"×14" sheets.

AEROSTICH PAINT SAVER MESH

"I was caught red-handed by a County Sheriff doing 67 in a 55. He asked for my license and registration. I asked if it would be okay if I went to the back of my bike to get it (rules #1 & 2 I learned from my cop buddies: no sudden moves, and ask permission before reaching for anything.) He said I could and stepped around to keep his eye on me. I opened the holder, and he smiled and said, 'Boy, is that slick; where'd you get that?' I told him. 'I ride a Harley,' he said, 'And I'm always misplacing those things or they get wet.' Then he went back to run my information. He came back and said, 'I'm just going to give you a warning, but slow down, okay?' 'Sure thing,' I said, 'and thanks.' There was a brief pause, 'Could you write down the name of the place you bought that licence plate thing?' he asked." — Locking License Plate Compartment Review by Rand

WHY DO WE MAKE THESE SLEEVES AND CASES?

Because the ones in stores suck, especially for everyday motorcycle and scooter riding. Aerostich padded cases and sleeves are not overly-complicated, or overly anything. They are simple, practical designs, made at our Duluth shop, using a very lightweight yet flexible (but still semi-stiff) open-cell foam (not floppy neoprene) sandwiched and laminated between two durable fabrics. And no redundant zippers or pockets either.

Inside is thin soft polyester fleece laminate. Outside is a lightweight abrasion-resistant slightly slippery twill laminate. And around the edge is a strong Nylon binding tape.

Slide your tablet or notebook in. It stays there by slight friction against the fit and fleece. Comes out faster and easier, too. If a cover flap is involved it secures with only a few simple pieces of hook & loop. Your device is protected and ready to pack along without extra weight or bulk.

Lastly, these cases are really durable. I'm still using a fifteen year old prototype every day. And it's still showing only minimal wear."

AEROSTICH PADDED LAPTOP SLEEVES

Made of soft nylon with a foam padding, this lightweight sleeve has a hook and loop closed top flap and a plush interior. Mind you, this whole affair is not waterproof or super armored, so if the ol' Pentium shoots off the back of the Hayabusa after an enthusiastic clutch drop, it's gonna be toast. We make these ourselves because we could not find a simple padded, lightweight sleeve made in China. Funny, huh? Sliver, Blue or Hi-Viz.

AEROSTICH ENVELOPE BAGS

These hook & loop closure bags are carefully made from 400D Oxford weave nylon, with a highly water-resistant PU (Polyurethane) coating on the inside. Each bag offers ultra-durable secure storage capacity with a faster, more convenient closure than zip-lock or zippered bags and drawstring stuff sacks. These bags are perfect inside a tank bag, backpack or saddle bag. They are tough enough to stand up to vibrational wear, abrasion and long-term expedition use. The hook & Loop strip across the top is 1/2" wide and end-to-end secure.

The smallest size is right to keep earplugs clean and protected. The largest works for full-page documents and file folders. In between sizes are great for repair item kit, cooking tools, or to protect and organize electronics. The one that's long and short is great as a travel office for organizing and keeping pens, receipts, money, and miscellany all in one place inside a tank bag or travel pack.

We've been making and selling these for more than thirty years and we're still using some of the originals. They don't wear out. Nobody else makes anything similar, and they continue to work better than anything else for what they do Blue.

AEROSTICH MESSENGER BAGS

The fastest, most comfortable, versatile and easy to way to carry stuff on a motorcycle, scooter or bicycle. Triangular in cross-section, messenger bags wrap around your back and stay in position when riding. The original 'Courier' size holds a small briefcase, a few magazines and some files...plus a tablet and notebook computer with room to spare. It is the most versatile and best selling size.

All are constructed of 1000D PU-backed Cordura nylon, with a seamless bottom for maximum strength and durability. All also feature a bright yellow reinforced PVC waterproof inner lining. Also inside is a usefully-sized organizer pocket (two on the Parcel size) and 'clip-on' key loop.

After long use they'll develop an 'experienced' patina that reflects your individual patterns of use and wear. The 2" military-spec nylon shoulder strap adjusts quickly and easily via a cam lock buckle for a secure, comfortable fit. For heavy-load all-day comfort, there is an oversize, removable, load-spreading shoulder pad with a grippy Ultrasuede surface (it's optional for the Letter size).

TWENTY YEARS AGO MESSENGER BAGS WERE REINVENTED

The first Aerostich messenger bag was created in 1985. We patterned it after a 'proven-by-messengers' industrial cotton, canvas, steel-buckled design because back then that was all there was, made in small numbers for working couriers. (Bag-centric businesses like Timbuk2 and Chrome didn't exist yet, and companies like Patagonia and North Face didn't produce bags like this.)

Our Messenger Bags are far more strongly made than all the more recent ones, and many nuanced construction details are different. One example is the top flap. Most designs connect the inner fabric to the outer fabric using an inexpensive 'binding' stitched around the edge. Every Aerostich messenger bag's flap is first sewn inside-out, then turned right side-out and carefully edge-stitched the same way a dress shirt collar is made. This looks better and lasts much longer. There are dozens of other examples. There really is a difference.

AEROSTICH MESSENGER BAG FLAP EXTENDER

Extend the storage capacity of your Aerostich messenger bag by adding one of these flap extenders. Attaches to existing flap velcro to offer even greater room for carrying a larger load. These were originally developed for a local sandwich shop who use Aerostich messenger bags for their bicycle delivery service. They found that even the cavernous capacity of a Courier bag could be filled up with a large order from hungry office workers, so this solution was devised to give them more sandwich hauling space without adding another delivery rider or a second bag. It works great! Expand the flap of your messenger bag to comfortably haul even more stuff on your next ride. Each flap is sewn from the same materials as the original bags, and includes a 3m Scotchlite reflective strip for added visibility when riding in low light. Specify bag size and color.

These are over eight feet long (100"), and the webbing has a 1300 lb break strength. (May be cut to shorter lengths and fuse the ends with a cigarette lighter). Sold in sets of 3.

"Impressed with the design and quality . I've add these loops to my side bags for additional tie down points. Great quality, thoughtful rubber washer helps the water proofing." — Luggage Loops Review by bobz

"These hooks are strong, easy to install, and discreet. They eliminated my baggage tie-down issues for any ride, but especially for camping trips. They are small enough so that they don't draw attention to themselves, but large enough to easily attach bungees or RokStraps (my preference). The installation instructions are in Asian characters, but have drawings that are easily understood - not rocket science. Highly recommended." —Seat Hooks Review by John

"I've seen this product used by many and finally broke down to get one. Very ingenious packaging takes little space, the cords don't get tangled in your other things. And will easily hold down pretty much anything smaller than the kitchen sink." —Bunge Buddy Review by Rich

"Worked great for me, certainly a huge improvement over having to constantly dig the trail map out of my fanny pack. Large map area was really nice too, minimized the need to take map out to refold and expose a new area. Was initially concerned about whether the plastic buckles zip tied to the handlebar would be up to the task but they survived 4 days of serious off-roading without a problem. I didn't encounter any serious rain but I could see where it would be nice to have a bit better weather seal on the map compartment. For my uses (off-road) it would be a bit better without the extra pockets since all I really need is the big map window."

"...The other item that I bought last minute for this ride was the banana pack. I have an old one (similar) made here in Europe from around the 1980s that had pretty much seen better days. This was the closest thing I could find to it and as it turns out was much nicer. I wore this every day to carry all my important stuff. Wallet, glasses, passport, butt-wipes, camera, cellphone, and respro bandit. Being able to expand it was a huge plus when we stopped and ended up purchasing trinkets. I don't have a picture without it over my shoulder. Just a really handy piece." —Review by Don Muther
